FINANCE:

We are in the second half of the year! No request for expenditures (donations) have been received as of yet. If none are received, our Finance committee will distribute funds to established agencies to close out 2015. As a reminder, we will carry over some funds to help with 2016 and any outstanding debt we may have to carry over from 2015. We will set up the 2016 class for success.

SOCIALS:

Maranatha is having a Fall Cookout on Sunday, October 4 at 5 PM. We will enjoy the great outdoors at George & Rhonda Chastang's Splendouridge Farms at Highway 75 South and Highway 16. George and Rhonda have a barn we can use in case of rain. Sign up to bring some food, bring your own chair and be ready to socialize! We will have some outdoor games, for folks to play.

Directions: Take Highway 75 South and exit Highway 16. (The exit is 15 miles past Glenpool.) Turn left (heading east) on Hwy 16 and go 1.5 miles. There is a sign "Splendouridge Farms" on the north side of the highway .

If you need more information, contact Karen Brownlee Campbell (918/625-5989) or Jeanie Payton (918/872-8888).

Joys:

From Jill & Bob Thomas and Family:

Friends,

Jill and I are hosting a homecoming for Olivia, who will be in Oklahoma doing a media tour for the first time since becoming Miss USA 2015. Olivia asked that we make this an "Awareness Event" for causes which she and the Miss Universe Organization are closely aligned and important to women and Oklahoma.

So keep your checkbooks at home and join us on the evening of September 24 as we collectively shine a light on the Alzheimer's Association, Oklahoma Project Woman and the Tulsa Area United Way—all at the Woody Guthrie Museum, where an exciting new exhibit will open the day before.

Click here for invitation details and to RSVP. It is our pleasure for you to come celebrate Olivia's homecoming in a meaningful way. We very much look forward to seeing you.

Thank you,

Jill & Bob

PS: We understand that TAUW has an Alexis De Tocqueville event on the same evening. We have coordinated Olivia's open house, so that those particular guests can join us a bit later.
